CLERK: Senator Wiltse voting no on the original motion.

PRESIDENT: Senator Marvel.

CLERK: Senator Clark voting no on the original ... Senator Clark voted no on the original motion.

PRESIDENT: He wants to vote again.

CLERK: Senator Dickinson voting no ... he also voted no on the original motion. Senator Keyes voting no.

PRESIDENT: Well we read it just before the vote, Senator Keyes. Yes sir.

CLERK: Senator Keyes changing from no to aye.

PRESIDENT: Would the Sergeant-at-Arms get the rest of the Senators in the chambers please. Would the Sergeant-at-Arms get Senator Swigart, Senator Chambers. Senator Murphy would you record your presence. Senator Cavanaugh would you take your chair. Senator DeCamp.

CLERK: Senator DeCamp changing from aye to no.

PRESIDENT: Senator Dickinson.

SENATOR DICKINSON: Would it be in order to move to raise the Call, Mr. President? I'm asking the Mr. President please, Senator Lewis.

PRESIDENT: It's in order. Anytime half the body ... the only problem is ...

SENATOR DICKINSON: I move to raise the Call.

PRESIDENT: We still have a right to get the Sergeant-at-Arms to get the membership here. Our rules do provides that at anytime any member can ask that the Call be raised. Senator Frank Lewis.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: Mr. Chairman, that wasn't the way I understood the rule the other day.

PRESIDENT: The rules to provide that.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: I'd like to get the rest of the membership here.

PRESIDENT: Well we're trying to get them here, but a membership ... anybody has a right to request the raise of the Call.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: I'm going to ask for a transcript of the other day. You're sure going to look funny.

PRESIDENT: No I won't, no funnier than I look anyway. Senator Cavanaugh, do you have something to discuss with the Chair?
